personnel there. They should be ready to go with this.

SENATOR JANSSEN: So then...so then most of that money is going to go where it needs to go. It won't be bound up with...with extra employees and so on, but it will go directly out to the people who need it?

SENATOR SCHROCK: That's my understanding, Senator Janssen.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Thank you very much, that's all the questions I have, and I'll turn the rest of my time back to the Chair.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Janssen. Senator Cudaback, on the committee amendments to LB 863.

SENATOR CUDABACK: I'd like, Mr. President, members, I'd like to ask Senator Schrock a question, please.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Schrock, would you yield?

SENATOR SCHROCK: I will.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Schrock, I think we all remember the days of the asbestos and the cleanup and where that was questionable in some of our minds. Did you state, when you read in the committee amendments, that, if it wasn't the primary purpose, there would not be any looking back on the so-called paint? If you demolished a home and it had lead-based paint in it, would that be...come under this act, or would it not?

SENATOR SCHROCK: This act basically deals with the certification of workers. And I don't think it's going to be doing any of that type of mandating, Senator Cudaback.

SENATOR CUDABACK: I thought I heard you say something about that when you...if it wasn't the primary purpose, it would not be included in the...

SENATOR SCHROCK: This act mainly deals with certification of people who are working with the cleanup.

SENATOR CUDABACK: That's what I wanted you to say, so I hope
